BREWER SCHORR'S TURF CAREER.

Brewer Schorr's second venture on the turf is energetic enough if not of great financial result. I suppose that the Western turf owes him $100,000. His last venture was as the Gambinus stable. It gave Tom Kiley a fabulous price for Wightman and embraced that speedy villain, Servitor. Then he had John Garcia for a trainer, and Bob Francis—nearing overweight and his end—as a jockey.

If I should live and write for a century more, the last race Servitor ran in the Gambinus colors would never get out of my eye. I saw the horse win again for Barney Schreiber, but the Gambinus stable's Washington Park race had its angles, as the billiard players say. I had forgotten all about Servitor last August, when in St. Louis on business I went to see Schreiber's noble farm at Bridgeton, half an hour's ride from the city of Wabash. I'd seen Balgown and thought of Kinzea Stone, the Hyde Park stakes of 1890 and the famous lawsuit that came out of it, patted Innocence and Lemon Blossom, fondled Pennyroyal—the true—and her shapely and precocious daughter by the great Morello and exchanged ideas on courage and truth with a weakness of my own—gray and gallant Braw Scot. On the end they led out a shapely bay horse. He seemed familiar to me. Still I couldn't place him. Not one of the dozen natives said a word. I walked around the horse. There was a jagged scar on the left hip. "Why, that's Servitor!" I said. "Sure!" answered the burly master of Woodlands. Then I told them a story. It wound around that scar and ran this way: "Joe Murphy and I went out to report the racing at Washington Park July 22, 1892. That was before the day of western form sheets and we used to knock about and do the best we could for news. A lot came out of the last race. That horse, Servitor, then in the Gambinus stable, was a hot favorite. He opened at 7 to 10 and 4 to 5, and, though heavily backed—Schorr put about $11,000 on him—he went back to even money. Joe Burke and Clint Riley were in the stand and didn't like the look of the betting. There was a sharp play on Minnie Cee, backed from 8 to 5 to 1. She was owned by the more or less sharp Cahns of St. Louis' who had Linda, too. Burke called and told me about his dislike of the ring indications and asked me if I would get Murphy and act with him as patrol judges. I did it. Murf went to the post and I stood on the turn near the three-quarter pole. There were only six in the lot, but insane Lillian Lindsay and that one-eyed California horror, Pescador, were among the six, and it took Jimmy Sheridan thirty minutes nearly to get them away. Servitor was in the last three, and inside. As he got to the five-furlong starting stand George Miller, on Kingstock, bore in on him. There was a sharp crash, and going to the half Servitor was back in fifth place and trouble. Francis rode him desperately and used catgut and steel to their limit. The horse simply couldn't get up, and Minnie Cee, off in front, won in almost what is termed 'a gallop.' The judges liked the result less than the betting. It was the suspicious glint of one to the resolute other. They came near ruling Schorr and Garcia off, though tickets were showed and protests and explanations made. While Servitor was taken to his stall Murf and I were walking from our posts. We got to the stand and reported that, as far as we could see, Servitor had been used to win every foot of the route. Then the judicial idea was uncovered. No decision had been made. Both of us had heard the crash. 'Have you examined the horse?' I asked. They hadn't but would. Servitor was brought back. 'Blood was running in a slow stream from a deep cut on the left hip. Our report fitted with it, a decision was made, bets paid—ours wasn't; we bet on Servitor—and Schorr and Garcia relieved.

"The next day we went over—in a band—to that five furlong starting box. It was on the inner track, split in two, and on the split edges were some of those missing hairs. That's how that horse earned that scar." Then they led him back to the depth of straw and volume of hay in his box stall.

FORSYTH'S SUMMER MEETING.

The program for the first eight days of the Forsyth Summer Meeting of fifteen days, starting Saturday, June 6, is out. The offerings for the eight days are $15,200, $2,400 and $2,200 respectively for the two Saturdays. Only five races are displayed for six of the days. An extra event on each is usual, which means $1,800 more. Such racing gifts are up to the Western standard. The conditions of the races are such as to cause an increase in the class of entries.

A SPECIAL FORM SERVICE.

From and after June 1, Daily Racing Form Publishing Company will be ready to fill orders for a local form service of marvelous range. Its messengers will deliver to subscribers each evening a leather-bound volume of the charts of all races run the same afternoon, with indexed entries for the following day on each track—local and foreign. The charge for such service will be reasonable and quoted upon application.

SUNNY WINS A FAST RACE

It was cloudy at Lakeside yesterday and a shower fell before the second race, but it didn't interfere with the racing, or hurt the track which was fast and in good order. The attendance was up to the average and the sport spirited, though only one favorite, Easter Eve in the two-year-old race, and two second choices, Beryl Star in the opening event and Sunny in the mile and a quarter, were successful. Revenue in the fifth race, one of Captain Rice's good things, was the outsider of the day, as he landed the purse at 50 to 1, being at one time as high as 150 to 1.

The event of the afternoon was the mile and a quarter selling race, in which there were eight starters. Jack the Jew was an odds on favorite, with Sunny at 6 and Pat Malloy Jr. 7 to 1. Jack the Jew showed in front to a good start, but he was taken back, and Dorsey sending Sunny to the front led past the stand by two lengths. The three-year-old improved his lead round the turn and opened a big gap. All along the back stretch he increased his advantage, and reminded old racegoers of VanBuren's performance at Washington. The boys on the other horses, evidently thought he would come back, and it was not till the half mile pole that Jack the Jew commenced to go after him, Dick Tension up to that time having been second and Pat Malloy Jr. third. Round the turn Sunny kept up his rapid gait and Jack the Jew could not decrease his lead to less than six lengths. Full of running Sunny led into the stretch and coming on won in a gallop by ten lengths in the very fast time of 2:07½, beating the Indiana record by three seconds. Jack the Jew was second and Dick Tension third. Sunny ran in the colors of J. Steppe, the ex-jockey, for the first time, Hankins & Johnson having disposed of the colt two days ago for the nominal sum of $200, to be paid when he had won two races. Sunny is in the Decoration Day handicap at 75 pounds, and though he incurs a five pound penalty for his win, his chances look good, if none of the real good ones come.

Big Strive was scratched from the maiden three-year-old race, Beryl Star, the second choice had an easy thing of it, Terragnes, the favorite, not running a good race.

Easter Eve, with Magnusson up, scored a win for John Brenock in the 2-year-old race. She was favorite and made the running, but only managed to beat Vanessa by half a length.

Lollie Eastin was the pick in the third event, with Miss Kitty second choice. Lucinda got the best of the start, but that greatly improved colt Bob Lee went to the front at once, and led into the stretch, followed by Lollie Eastin. The pair raced together from the eighth pole, and Bob Lee looked like stopping at the sixteenth. He came again and won by a short neck, though, if Everett had made his effort sooner, Lollie would probably have won.

Nannie D and Kirk were most fancied in the fifth race. Inspector Hunt made the running to the stretch, where the lot closed up. Kirk in trying to come through next the rails got shut out by Revenue, and Nannie D looked like a winner fifty yards from home, when Revenue came with a rush and well ridden, beat her a head.

Hi Henry was an even money shot in the last race. Virgie Dixon made the running to the stretch, where she gave it up, and Panout came on. Hugh Penny made a strong effort with the favorite, but he could not quite get up, and Panout won by a neck, while Outgo, who had come with a tremendous rush the last furlong, finished on the outside a short head behind.

ST. LOUIS FAIR GROUNDS WRECKED.

There was a disaster at St. Louis yesterday afternoon. There are no particulars. At midnight there was not one wire between Chicago and St. Louis. There were but two reports. One came on a suburban line. It said: "Big bridge down. Whole town wiped out."

The racing wire gave the other. It simply said: "Cyclone coming. Roof of grand stand off. Lot of people killed."

There was no sixth race. The summary of the five decided are:

First Race, maiden 2-year-olds, 4½ furlongs.—Juanita, 105 (Cochran), 5 to 1, won; Mattie Belle, 105 (Macklin), 4 to 1, second; Sackville 107 (E. Jones), 2½ to 1, third. Harry Floyd, 105; Groganette, 105; Zarina, 105; Katie by the Door, 105; Augustina, 105; and Vencedor, 107; also ran. Time, 56¾.

Second race, 7½ furlongs, selling.—Mercury, 108, (Penn), 12 to 1, won; Find Out, 108, (Martin) 8 to 1, second; Crevasse, 116, (Vandusen), 2 to 1, third. Belle Star, 101; Pinkey Potter, 97; Sycamore, 96; and Braw Scot, 105, also ran. Time, 1:35½.

Third race, 1 mile and 70 yards, allowances—Flying Dutchman, 122 (Martin), 1 to 3, won; Beau Ideal II, 106 (Garner), 12 to 1, second; Muskalonge, 106 (Vandusen), 3 to 1, third. Shooting Star also ran. Time, 1:46½.

Fourth race, ¾ mile, allowances—Leader Ban, 103 (Vandusen), 2 to 1, won; Ramiro (by Gano), 97 (E. Jones), 6 to 5, second; Captive, 107 (Martin), 7 to 1, third. St. Augustine, 92; David 114, also ran. Time, 1:16.

Fifth race, ¾ mile, selling.—Johnny McHale, 107, (Schorr), 3 to 1, won; Hush, 106, (Garner), 10 to 1, second; Chiswell, 169, (Penn), 5 to 1, third. The Kitten, 104; Bravo, 92; Fasig, 92; Claude Hill 92; Pretender, 106; Denver, 106; Nevada Boy, 106; and Mervyl, 102, also ran. Time 1:15¾.

BURNS & WATERHOUSE STABLE.

After the Eastern division of Burns & Waterhouse's string arrived at St. Louis, Rowena B died. She was by Maxim—Lulu, and a sweet filly. The stable is made up of:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Bing Binger has been sold by Mrs. McGuigan to A. Eggleston.

The Fleischmann's now own Shakespeare II, purchased from R. W. Walden last Monday.

Halma is just about able to walk about in the paddock connected with an Eastern veterinary establishment.

Walter O. Farmer and J. W. Price have leased the old Montreal track and will open a twelve days running meeting there July 1.

The Fleischmann's are seeking Prince Leif Byron McClelland priced him to them at about $18,000. The deal isn't likely to be made.

Jockey Heinrichs, notorious for his Frisco connection with the Little Pete scandal, has joined the outlaw band at the Barksdale, Md., track.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Henry Gerhardt, who is competent and both knows and loves Ben Brush, says that at no time this year has the great colt shown the turn of speed that he had last season.

Prince Imperial has been seriously ill at Oakley, and Banker, a Fleischman cast off, trained in the same stable—A. G. Weston's—dropped dead in his work a few mornings ago.

Mr. Dwyer is said to have sought the second call right to Jockey Thorpe's services for the Latonia and St. Louis Derbies. As Ramiro is on the shelf Mr. Laudeman will be likely to oblige Mr. Dwyer.

From the headquarters of turf fable—Cincinnati—comes the story that Byron McClelland offered to sell Caesarian a few days ago for $900. What rot? The colt is one of the fastest and most consistent in training—good Faustus. He's worth double $900 for what he has done.

The selected Ormondo colt, W. O. B. Macdonough's Orestes, is at St. Louis. With him from California came Ferrier, San Mateo and one other two-year-old belonging to Walter Hobart. Orrin Hickok brought them over with his trotters.

Adolph Spreckels' Australian mare Candid, by Splendor—Canary, won the Spreckels Stakes of four miles at San Francisco in 7:24½. She ran her last race that day and has gone to the farm. The California eulogies over the mare's performance are out of joint with the record. Candid carried but 95 pounds. Ten Broeck ran four miles with 104 pounds up in 8¾ seconds less, and Fellowcraft, with 13 pounds more, did the route in five seconds better.

THE GREATEST OF FORM BOOKS.

Because of inability to fill orders for the first leather bound form book—the small edition of which was sold three days after it was offered—Daily Racing Form Publishing Company have in preparation a work of art in the form line. It will be a beautifully bound volume in black flexible leather, containing all the charts from March 25 to May 31 inclusive, with a full and correct—printed—index. The book will be of 300 or more pages, and its charts—some 1300 in number—will cover the racing at Little Rock, Memphis, Nashville, Newport, Birmingham, Forsyth, Sheffield, Lakeside, Windsor, Lexington, St. Louis, Louisville, Oakley, Washington, Aqueduct and Morris Park.

The book will be a revelation in its line and its price—$6—reasonable. Already nearly one-third of the limited edition has been reserved. Prepaid orders will be taken for it, listed and filled according to subscription list. When the edition is exhausted subscribers will be notified and their money refunded. The book will be ready for delivery about June 3.
